

Democracy cannot exist without information from many sources. The people own the airways - you have no right to surrender them to a monopoly. You are charged with their protection. Do your job and quit selling out.